My name is Barbara E. Peskin. I've lived in Meadowlakes since early 2000. I was a member of the Board of the Property Owner's Association for five years and aided the City as temporary treasurer of Hidden Falls during the changeover from private to public.

I have my own Bookkeeping/Tax Return business which I have engaged in for over 50 years. I am a widow of two years and my daughter (and her dog) live with me here in Meadowlakes where I play golf and bridge when I'm not working at home.

I believe in giving back to the community and feel I could be a help to the City Council not only because of my accounting background but also because of my strong work background, as I was a paralegal for an attorney in Austin for 15 years and worked in France in a secretarial position on an Army Base and in Germany helping to set up the first Credit Union.
