COURTROOM DRESS CODE

Everyone is expected to be dressed “appropriately”
for court proceedings.

No T-shirts, halter-tops, tank tops, etc.

No Shorts.

Gentlemen, doff your hats.

No excessively soiled clothing.

Clean and pressed jeans are certainly acceptable.

As a guideline, gentlemen might wear a collared shirt and tie,
or a jacket with or without a tie.

Use your judgment, being mindful of the nature of Court proceedings
Ladies should be attired consistently and may wear dress pant-suit outfits.

This is YOUR courtroom where matters important to the parties is conducted and your attention to adding appropriate dignity to the proceedings is appreciated.

PAGERS AND CELL PHONES

MUST BE TURNED OFF AND MUST NOT BE USED WHILE COURT IS IN SESSION.

Vibrator-mode pagers may be worn but
Should not be checked at a time or in a manner
So as to disrupt the proceedings.
